Art. 25. A competitor who has registered for a tournament but has not paid the tournament fee by the end of it shall not receive any points. The competitor shall not be eligible to participate in subsequent tournaments until the amount due has been paid.

Section IV

Breaks during a match

Art. 26. (1) During a match each competitor is entitled to one break (timeout).

(2) The break shall last five minutes, unless otherwise decided at a particular tournament.

(3) In the disciplines of 8-ball, 9-ball and 10-ball, the break may only be requested between games.

(4) In 14.1, the break begins between games, but the competitor currently playing may continue to play without his opponent present. If the player who is not on the move decides to take a break, they must ensure that there is a referee at the table monitoring the game. Otherwise, no claims may be made against the player on the move.

(5) When a player wishes to exercise their right to a break, they must personally notify their opponent and one of the referees and ensure that the referee has recorded the table and their name.

(6) The end of the break and the competitor's return to the table shall also be reported in person by the competitor to one of the referees.

(7) Failure to report the use of or return from a break is punishable by an "official warning"

Art.27. (1) When one competitor exercises their right to a break, their opponent must remain seated as if they were a player not currently on the move.

(2) The opponent of the competitor taking a break (timeout) may also decide to use their break by observing the provisions of Article 26.

Art.28. During the break (timeout) the competitor may receive advice from their coach.

BALKAN BILLIARD ASSOCIATION

Section V

Time limit

Art.29. (1) In order to control the timely progress of the tournament, it is possible for the referees to set a time limit (shotclock) for each shot.

(2) A time limit is placed if a match is causing a delay, at the discretion of the TD.

Art. 30. (1) After the initial shot, a player is allowed sixty (60) seconds for a shot, with no right to an extension.

(2) The time for each shot is thirty-five (35) seconds.

(3) The extension time is twenty-five (25) seconds.

Art. 31. (1) The timer is started after all balls have stopped their movement and the white ball is available for play.

(2) The timer stops after the cue tip hits the cue ball or the allotted shot time has elapsed.

(3) If a player fails to make a shot within the allotted time in Article 31, a foul is awarded, and the opponent has the ball in hand.

(4) For each game of the match, each player is entitled to one time extension

(5) If a player wishes to use a time extension, they shall notify the referee before the time for the shot expires.

Section VI

Use of "Magic Ball Rack"

Art.32. (1) The use of a "Magic Ball Rack" is allowed only in 8-ball, 9-ball and 10-ball games. It may not be used in 14.1.

(2) For proper placement, the table must be marked with a vertical line long enough to reach from the top to the bottom opening of the "Magic Ball Rack"

(3) After the rack has been broken, the referee or the competitors (when there is no referee at the table the players agree who should remove the fixture) must remove the "Magic Ball Rack" as soon as possible without it touching the balls.

(4) With or without a referee, the "Magic Ball Rack" may only be removed if no more than two balls are on it. An exception to this rule is made in cases where there are one or more touching balls (frozen balls). In this situation, the template is removed when there are no more touching balls in the way.

BALKAN BILLIARD ASSOCIATION

(5) Once removed from its original location, the "Magic Ball Rack" must be placed outside the playing area, including the table edges.

(6) If a "Magic Ball Rack" is placed anywhere on the playing surface of the table and is touched by a ball in play, the shot is considered a foul.

Section VII

Three Point Break in 9-Ball Game

Art.33. (1) For a break to be legal a player must drive 3 object balls past the head string or pocket them.

(2) For the head string to be considered touched, it is sufficient that only part of the ball has crossed.

(3) Any combination in paragraph (1) is allowed for a break to be considered satisfactory (one ball is pocketed and two touch the head string or two are pocketed and one touches the head string, etc.)

Art.34. If the conditions of Article 33 are not met but the break is legal, it is not considered satisfactory, and the following rules apply:

- if ball #9 is scored, it must be retrieved and returned to the point before play can continue;
- the opponent has the right to either accept the table and play or return it to the player who broke;
- if the opponent accepts the table, they are not allowed to play a push out;
- if the table is returned to the player who broke, they are allowed to play a push out. If a push out is played, the opponent is entitled to accept the table and play or return it to the player who broke.

Section VIII

Penalties

Art.35. (1) In case of a serious violation of the rules, the competitor shall suffer a penalty. Depending on the offence, the penalty is at the discretion of the referee.

(2) In the case of a first offence, the penalty shall be an "official warning"

(3) A second offence is punishable by forfeiture of one game.

(4) A third violation shall result in the forfeiture of a match.

Art. 36. Depending on the severity of the violation and at the discretion of the referee, a player may be disqualified from the tournament.

BALKAN BILLIARD ASSOCIATION

Section IX

Prize Fund

Art. 37. (1) The prize fund shall be generated from the entry fees of the competitors and from sponsorship, if any. If there is no sponsor, the Prize Fund shall be distributed as follows:

(2) Tournament fees shall be distributed as follows:

- 70% for the competitors' prize fund
- 30% for BBA expenses (cups, medals, judges)

- 70% for the competitors shall be distributed as follows:
- 34% for 1st place
- 22% for 2nd place
- 12 % for 3rd place
- 5% for 5th place

(3) The prize fund will be paid via bank transfer no later than 3 days after the finish of the tournament. 10% of the prize fund will be withheld for state taxes.

Art. 38. The finalists of each BBA tournament receive the following prizes:

- (1) 1st, 2nd and 3rd place medals
- (2) Special trophy for 1st place
- (3) Finalists receive a WILD CARD for participation in the Euro Tour provided by BBA's partner EPBF, which covers the next Euro Tour free of charge.
- (4) Finalists also receive a 2-night Hotel accommodation provided by BBA. They will only need to cover their transport costs.
- (5) If the finalists of the tournament have not paid 50 euros per year and are not registered, the two places for the Euro Tour are determined by the BBA board.

Art. 39. The last tournament of each calendar year will be held together with the annual Official Awards Ceremony. The events shall be held at the same venue. The celebration will be coupon-based, and the cost will be announced one month before the tournament. Food and drinks will be provided with the coupon. There will be a formal programme with presenters and music and the following prizes will be awarded:

BALKAN BILLIARD ASSOCIATION

- (1) Top 8 competitors selected by ranking.
- (2) Best Junior of the year
- (3) Best Veteran of the year
- (4) Best Team of the year
- (5) Special awards for sponsors and partners
- (6) Many more:

For the official awarding for the end of the year, 3,000 euros are provided, which will be distributed among the first 8 in the final ranking of the ranking list.

Chapter Four

RULES OF CONDUCT

Art.40. During a tournament the following rules shall be observed:

- (1) Smoking in the hall during a tournament is prohibited.
- (2) The use of alcohol, drugs or doping by players, referees and officials during a tournament is prohibited.
- (3) It is mandatory to switch off mobile phones during a match.
- (4) The use of camera flashes is prohibited.
- (5) Each player is expected to be focused on their own game and respect their opponent, the referee and the audience. This means not to distract the opponent during a move, not to move in their visual field and not to make noise when it is the opponent's turn.
- (6) Contact with the table when it isn't a competitor's turn is prohibited.
- (7) The competitor must be composed and not express negative emotions towards the audience, referee, opponent, table or any equipment, items or people in the hall.
- (8) Loud talking is prohibited around tables where tournament matches are being played.
- (9) It is preferable that movement around the tables at which the tournament is being played be done during breaks so as not to interfere with the concentration of the competitors.

BALKAN BILLIARD ASSOCIATION

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS

Art.41. For the purposes of these Regulations:

1. A "junior" participant is a person who reaches the age of 18 in the year of the tournament.

These Regulations were approved by the BBA Board on 01.02.2022. All competitors agree to these provisions at the time of payment of the membership fee for the 2023 season.

All changes and amendments to these or other regulations adopted by the BBA Board, as well as additional decisions of the BBA Board, shall come into force on the date of their publication on the official website of the Association www.balkanba.com.

The BBA reserves the right to change the content of this document.

For all cases not covered herein, the European and World Billiards Federations' rules will apply, which are available on their websites (Pool Billiards - The Rules of Play):
